

717 243-0123

78 West Pomfret Street Carlsle, PA 17013

---

Taylor P Andrews

Educational Programs and Speaking Engagements:

Pennsylvania Bar Institute Criminal Law Symposiums:

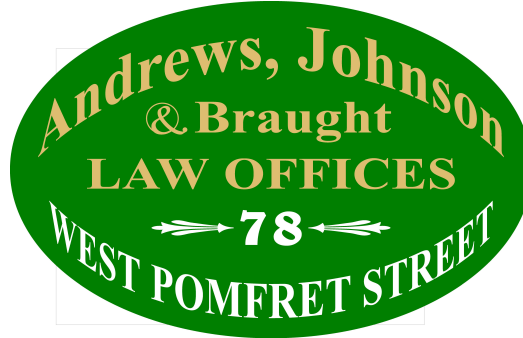

- 1994 Primer - Serious Mental Illness (I selected topic and recruited Dr. Fuller Torrey as presenter)
- 1995 Representing the seriously mentally ill defendant (presenter)
- 1996 Representing the developmentally disabled defendant (presenter)
- 1997 A defendant's right to refuse psychotropic medication (planner)
- 1998 Plea bargaining and mandatory restitution (presenter)
- 1999 Competency determination of a mentally ill defendant (co-presenter)
- 2000 Competency & mental illness: the criminal lawyer's ethical dilemmas (co-presenter)
- 2003 2 Hour session on case study of prosecution of defendant with psychiatric disturbance –(planner and co-presenter)

Pennsylvania Trial Judges Conference:

- 1996 Primer - Serious Mental Illness (worked with NAMI of Pa. Forensic Director to plan & present a 3 hr program. Developed 3 Court-related vignettes; Dr. Roger Haskett was the primary presenter)

1997 AMI of Pa. annual meeting:

- "Ask the Lawyer" Question and Answer session focusing on forensic issues (co-presenter)

717 243-0123

78 West Pomfret Street Carlisle, PA 17013

---

OTHER:

- 2001 NAMI Pennsylvania Annual Conference: "Ask the Lawyer (about forensic issues)"
  - 2002 NAMI Pennsylvania Regional conferences [North Central & South Central] "Cumberland County's response to criminalization of mentally ill individuals"
  - 2002 Workshop of County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania and PCCD re Criminal Justice Advisory Committees – "Addressing problems of criminalization"
  - 2002 Member of Advisory Committee for development of curriculum of mandatory training about police response to mentally ill individuals for all municipal police in Pennsylvania.
  - 2002 Moderator of panel discussion "The Invisible Patient: Ethics and Mental Health" at 7th annual Biomedical Ethics Symposium at Dickinson College
  - 2002 NAMI PA of Cambria County:
    - Criminalization of serious mental illness [presenter]
    - Mental Health Commitment standard reform in USA and in PA [co-presenter]
  - 2002 NAMI Pennsylvania Annual Conference:
    - Ask the Lawyer
    - Leader of comment to HB 7423 re: amendments to PA Mental Health Procedures Act
  - 2002 Forensic Treatment Conference – Lead presenter re: Cumberland County Efforts to combat Criminalization
  - 2003 PBI - The Intersection of Mental Health Procedures and Criminal Practice [co-planner, co-presenter]
  - 2006 PA Legal Service Attorneys conference – spoke about the challenges of representing a client with serious mental illness.
  - 2007 Cumberland County Bar Association – Beyond Difficult. Advising the impaired client [co-planner and moderator]
  - 2009 Cumberland County Inns of Court – The Awkward Intersection of Mental Illness and Criminal Justice.
  - 2010 Annual Meeting of PACDL and PDAPA - Mental Illness and Criminal Defense
- Local speaking engagements at Allison Methodist Church, Camp Hill Presbyterian Church, Navy Supply Depot Leadership Association, Second Presbyterian Church, Carlisle Rotary, Carlisle Kiwanis, and multiple appearances in High School Classes at Carlisle Area High School and South Middleton High School

717 243-0123

78 West Pomfret Street Carlsle, PA 17013

---

As Special Counsel for the Treatment Advocacy Center:

- 1998 Keynote Speaker - Interagency Conference about Criminalization, Orlando, Fl.
- 1999 Keynote Speaker - NAMI South Dakota. Topic: Problems with Treatment in Prison
- 1999 Panelist - U.S. Department of Justice Conference on Criminalization, Washington, D.C.
- 2000 Governors' Summit[CA, AZ, HA, NV, CO] : Correctional Health to Community Health, LasVegas, NV:
  - "Managing the Mentally Ill inmate" Co-presenter
  - "Intervention and prevention of incarceration due to mental illness - Presenter
- 2000 Plenary speaker - NAMI Mississippi, "Swinging the Pendulum Back - Eliminating Barriers to Treating Mental Illness"
- 2000 Article published in TAC's Catalyst:
  - Tips for Family Members about the Criminal Justice System - Dealing with the defense attorney*